Message from our Pastor January 21, 2024

God bless you all, I came back to NYC for ordinary time. I had a blessed time with my nephew on vacation. Thank you for all the prayers, upon coming back I got sick, not COVID, but still sick. I will be ok. Thank you for all the prayers. We had to shut down St Gerard offices for a bit, due to my sickness, plus Nilda's brother, Josue Martinez, who lives in the Dominican Republic passed away suddenly and she had to fly down. Please pray for her family, and for his soul.

We have many blessings coming up very soon. Catholic Schools Week will start on January 28 at the 10:15 mass. After mass we will have an open house at the school. All are welcome, especially those interested in having their child attend. Registration begins on Monday. This year we are happy to have a special registration for those in Religious Ed. IF your child goes to Rel Ed the registration fee is only 100 dollars. Come in and ask questions. We also have any different finance scholarships and grants, while there is a cost to everyone, and noting but God's grace is 100 percent free I am sure we can help figure out a budget that works for your family. Come and See and support our Academy.

Friday February 2nd is the Feast of the Presentation of the Lord. As we normally do a 1st Friday mass at St Gerard's we are going to combine it into a beautiful joint parish mass with the blessing of Candles, and a procession for Candelabra Everyone is welcome at 7pm at St. Gerard's.

God bless you all Fr Gannon

Mensaje de nuestro Pastor 21 de enero de 2024

Dios los bendiga a todos, regresé a Nueva York por tiempo normal. Tuve un tiempo bendecido con mi sobrino de vacaciones. Gracias por todas las oraciones, al regresar me enfermé, no de COVID, pero sigo enfermo. Estaré bien. Gracias por todas las oraciones. Tuvimos que cerrar las oficinas de St Gerard por un tiempo debido a mi enfermedad, además el hermano de Nilda, Josué Martínez, que vive en República Dominicana falleció repentinamente y ella tuvo que volar hasta allí. Por favor oren por su familia y por su alma.

Tenemos muchas bendiciones muy pronto. La Semana de las Escuelas Católicas comenzará el 28 de enero con la misa de las 10:15. Después de la misa tendremos una jornada de puertas abiertas en la escuela. Todos son bienvenidos, especialmente aquellos interesados en que su hijo asista. La inscripción comienza el lunes. Este año estamos felices de tener una inscripción especial para aquellos en Educación Religiosa. Si su hijo va a Rel Ed, la tarifa de inscripción es de sólo 100 dólares. Entra y haz preguntas. También tenemos diferentes becas y subvenciones financieras, aunque hay un costo para todos y, teniendo en cuenta que la gracia de Dios es 100 por ciento gratuita, estoy seguro de que podemos ayudar a determinar un presupuesto que funcione para su familia. Ven y mira y apoya nuestra Academia.

El viernes 2 de febrero es la Fiesta de la Presentación del Señor. Como normalmente hacemos la misa del primer viernes en St. Gerard, la combinaremos en una hermosa misa parroquial conjunta con la bendición de velas y una procesión de candelabros. Todos son bienvenidos a las 7 p. m. en St. Gerard.

Dios los bendiga a todos P. Gannon

HISTORY OF FEAST OF CANDELARIA
The Feast of Candelaria has a long history, dating back to the 16th Century. According to a local legend, in 1576, some Inca fishermen were caught in a terrible storm on Lake Titicaca. As they prayed for help, the Virgin Mary appeared and led them to safety. In gratitude, they built a shrine containing a statue of the Virgin, which was sculpted by the Inca craftsman Tito Yupanqui the same year.

Another account of the statue's origins focuses on the sculptor. It is said that the Virgin of Copacabana, who had appeared to the sailors, appeared in a dream to Tito Yupanqui, who was not a sculptor. But he was so affected by the vision that he set out to learn to sculpt in Potosí. With his acquired skill, he hand-carved the Virgin from the wood of a maguey cactus, carried it by foot for 400 miles, from Potosí to Copacabana, and placed it in an adobe chapel.

During festivals, the courtyard is filled with colorful flowers, and for the feast, pilgrims and dancers come to Copacabana from Peru and across Bolivia. There are traditional Aymar dances, music, drinking, and feasting. On the third day of the feast, 100 bulls are gathered in a stone corral along the Yampupata road, and some of the braver revelers jump into the arena and try to avoid being attacked.

Believed to work miracles, the statue of the Virgin of Candelaria is the most important pilgrimage destination in Bolivia. The holiday has gained global traction in the last century, with much of the effort exerted by Saint John Paul II to integrate the celebration with renewed religious vows.
