INCARNATION CHURCH & ST. GERARD MAJELLA

Message from our Pastor February 27 2022

Today I will be coming back to NYC from Vacation. I want to thank the various priests (and Bishop Chappetto) for covering for me and helping Fr Killick. It was not easy to find priests to cover. Unfortunately, there are less and less of us and the ones who are free to help, are already helping and assigned to other parishes.

Fr Killick cannot say the 9:45 Spanish mass at the same time as the 10:15 English mass. Nor can he say the 11:45 English mass at the same time as the noon Spanish mass or for that matter the 8am and the 8:15. When one of us is away, or sick or on retreat we need to find a priest who is in good standing and who does not currently have a assignment to help. That reality is getting harder and harder to do. We make it happen but it is not as easy as one would think. That is a question that we as a joint community will have to pray over and figure out in time.

On another note, this Wednesday is Ash Wednesday. It is the Start of Lent. Now is a great time to prepare and to give God your hearts and your wounds (as I spoke about in last weeks bulletin). The Schedule for masses on that Wednesday is 8:30 INC 9:30 SGM, we will give out ashes to the Academy students at some point in the day as well. At night we will have ashes with a service at both churches. On Friday we will have stations of the cross at both churches. Deacon Franklyn will lead the stations at Incarnation and Fr Killick will lead them at St Gerard's.

Remember that Wednesday is a day of prayer and fasting and Fridays in lent is a day of prayer and no meat. Let us use this Lent as a time of reflection, prayer, healing, and renewal. God bless! Fr Gannon

MENSAJE DE NUESTRO PASTOR FEBRERO 27 2022

Hoy vuelvo a NYC de las vacaciones. Quiero agradecer a los diferentes sacerdotes (y al Obispo Chappetto) por cubrirme y ayudar al Padre Killick. No fue fácil encontrar sacerdotes que me cubrieran. Desafortunadamente, cada vez somos menos y los que están libres para ayudar, ya están ayudando y asignados a otras parroquias.

El P. Killick no puede decir la misa de las 9:45 en español al mismo tiempo que la misa de las 10:15 en inglés. Tampoco puede decir la misa en inglés de las 11:45 al mismo tiempo que la misa en español del mediodía, ni tampoco la de las 8:00 y la de las 8:15. Cuando uno de nosotros, está ausente, o enfermo o en retiro necesitamos encontrar un sacerdote que este en buen estado y que no tenga actualmente una asignación para ayudar. Esta realidad es cada vez más difícil de hacer. Lo hacemos, pero no es tan fácil como uno podría pensar. Esa es una cuestión que, como comunidad conjunta, tendremos que rezar y resolver con el tiempo.

Por otra parte, este miércoles es el Miércoles de Ceniza. Es el comienzo de la Cuaresma. Ahora es un gran momento para prepararse y entregar a Dios sus corazones y sus heridas (como hablé en el boletín de la semana pasada). El horario de las misas de ese miércoles es 8:30 en la Encarnación y las 9:30 en San Gerardo, impondremos la ceniza a los estudiantes de la Academia en algún momento del día también. Por la noche tendremos la ceniza con un servicio en ambas iglesias. El viernes tendremos estaciones de la cruz en ambas iglesias. El diácono Franklyn dirigirá las estaciones en la Encarnación y el Padre Killick las dirigirá en San Gerardo.

Recuerden que el miércoles es un día de oración y ayuno y los viernes de cuaresma son días de oración y sin carne. Aprovechemos esta Cuaresma como un tiempo de reflexión, oración, sanación y renovación.

¡Que Dios les bendiga! Fr Gannon

LA ORACION

Es la acción que lleva al hombre a volverse a Dios, a mirarlo y contemplarlo, hablarle y a unirse a EL sacramentalmente, celebrando con alegría los misterioso de la REDENCION del mundo. Es lo que da sentido a las practicas de cuaresma, las cuales Deben llevarnos a acercarnos a Dios.
